PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 9th day of December 1987, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

The uniform scale of fines.

1. (1) There shall be a scale of fines for offences, which shall be known as “the uniform scale”.

(2) The uniform scale at the commencement of this section is shown in the following table:

Level on the scale	Amount of fine
1	£ 50
2	£ 100
3	£ 200
4	£ 500
5	£1,000

(3) The States of Guernsey may from time to time by Ordinance vary any of the sums specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) A penalty provision which refers to a specified level on the uniform scale shall be construed as referring to that level on the uniform scale for which this section from time to time provides.

Fines under existing penalty provisions.

2. (1) This section applies to every penalty provision of -

(a) A Law applicable in, and registered on the Records of, the Island of Guernsey before the commencement of section 1 of this Law; and

(b) An Ordinance of the States of Guernsey approved before the commencement of section 1 of this Law; and

(c) A Guernsey statutory instrument made before the commencement of section 1 of this Law, whether or not that provision is in force on the date of the commencement of section 1 of this Law.

(2) Subject to section 3 of this Law, in every penalty provision to which this section applies for any reference (however framed or worded) to a fine or a maximum fine of £1,000 or less there is substituted a reference to a fine, or as the case may be to a maximum fine, of the appropriate level on the uniform scale.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the appropriate level on the uniform scale for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section is -

- (a) If the fine or the maximum fine concerned was on the day before the commencement of section 1 of this Law an amount specified in the table in section 1(2) of this Law, the level on the uniform scale which corresponds in that table to that amount;
- (b) If the fine or the maximum fine concerned was on that day a fine of an amount less than £1,000 which is not an amount specified in that table, the level on the uniform scale next above the amount of that fine.

(4) In the case of a penalty provision which provides (in whatever terms) for a maximum fine in respect of a subsequent offence which is higher than the maximum fine which may be imposed in respect of a first offence, if the application of subsection (3) of this section would make the maximum fine in respect of a first offence equal to the maximum fine in respect of a subsequent offence, then, notwithstanding that subsection, the appropriate level on the uniform scale in respect of a subsequent offence is the level next above that in respect of a first offence.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the appropriate level on the uniform scale in the case of the maximum fine which may be imposed under a penalty provision mentioned in column 1 of the Schedule to this Law is the level on the uniform scale specified in relation to that penalty provision in column 4 of that Schedule.

(6) Where the effect of this section is to substitute for a reference to a fine of a specified amount, in any Ordinance or Guernsey statutory instrument, a reference to a fine of the appropriate level on the uniform scale, that substitution does not in any way limit any power of the States or of a Committee to amend or vary that Ordinance or statutory instrument.

Continuing penalties.

3. This Law does not affect so much of any penalty provision as (in whatever words) makes a person liable to a fine or maximum fine for each period of a specified length during which a continuing offence is continued.

Interpretation.

4. (1) In this Law -

“Committee” means any body established by the States of Guernsey by whatsoever name called;

“Guernsey statutory instrument” means any order, regulation, rules or scheme made by a Committee under a power conferred by any Law or by any Ordinance;

“penalty provision” means:

(a) any provision (however framed or worded) of a Law applicable in Guernsey, of an Ordinance of the States of Guernsey, or of a Guernsey statutory instrument, which provides that a person shall be liable on conviction of an offence to a fine or a maximum fine of a specified amount in pounds sterling or by reference to a specified level on the uniform scale; and

(b) any provision (however framed or worded) of any such Law or Ordinance which confers power, by means of an Ordinance or Guernsey statutory instrument, to make a person liable on conviction of an offence (whether or not created by the Ordinance or instrument) to a fine or a maximum fine of a specified amount in pounds sterling or by reference to a specified level on the uniform scale.

(2) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that -

(a) the power of the Royal Court to impose a fine under section 201 of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975(a) is not a “penalty provision” for the purposes of this Law; but

(b) the power of a court to impose a fine under section 2(2) of the Criminal Justice (Suspended Sentence Supervision Orders) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1984(b) is a “penalty provision” for the purposes of this Law.

(3) The Interpretation (Guernsey) Law, 1984(c) applies to the interpretation of this Law throughout the Bailiwick.

(a) Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXV, p. 124.

(b) Ordre en Conseil No. XX of 1984.

(c) Ordres en Conseil Vol. XIII, p. 355.

Amendments to Magistrate's Court Law.

5. In section 10(1) of the Magistrate's Court (Guernsey) Law, 1954, as amended (d), -

- (a) for "five hundred pounds sterling", in both places where those words appear, there is substituted "level 4 on the uniform scale provided for by section 1 of the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989 or as from time to time varied by an Ordinance under subsection (3) of that section";
- (b) for "the sum of one thousand pounds sterling in fines" there is substituted "fines totalling the amount of level 5 on the uniform scale provided for by section 1 of the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989 or as from time to time varied by an Ordinance under subsection (3) of that section".

Citation.

6. This Law may be cited as the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989.

Commencement and application.

7. (1) This Law shall come into force on such day as the States of Guernsey may by Ordinance appoint.

(2) This Law shall apply only in relation to offences committed after it comes into force.
