

Ordonnance de la Cour Royale

XX.
1934

A LA COUR ROYALE DE L'ILE DE GUERNESEY.

Ordonnances provisoire supplémentaire à l'Ordonnance relative aux Huiles ou Essences Minérales ou autres substances de la même nature du 18 janvier 1932.

La Cour, ouïes les conclusions des Officiers du Roi, a rappelé l'Article 10 (1) de l'Ordonnance relative aux Huiles ou Essences Minérales ou autres substances de la même nature passée le 23 mai 1925 et rendue permanente le 18 janvier 1932, et y a substitué l'article suivant rédigé en anglais, lequel sera censé former partie de la dite Ordonnance: -

10. (1) (a) No material alteration or addition shall be made to any licensed store, nor shall any licensed tank, safe or other receptacle in which flammable oil is or has been kept be removed therefrom without the sanction of the Board, and in the event of sanction being given, note thereof shall be endorsed on the licence.

(b) In the event of any licensed tank, safe or other receptacle in which inflammable oil is or has been kept being no longer used or intended to be used for such purpose a notice in writing to that effect shall thereupon be given to the Inspector by the person to whom the licence in respect of such tank, safe or other receptacle has been granted, and no such tank, safe or other receptacle shall be dismantled, either in whole or in part, or moved or altered in any material respect otherwise than in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Inspector shall prescribe.

Et sera cette Ordonnance en force jusqu'aux Chefs-Plaids d'après Noël, 1934.

QUERTIER LE PELLEY,
Greffier du Roi.
